WIFE SAVERS BY MRS. MARY MORTON

Individual Lamb Steaks.—This is a method of finishing leftover roast lamb. Cut six slices of lamb of the desired thickness. Sprinkle well with salt. Roll in bread crumbs, then dip in a mixture of one beaten egg and two tablespoons of milk, then in crumbs again. Place meat in hot bacon fat about one-half cup and brown on both sides. Have ready six slices of hot dry toast a trifle larger than the steaks. Put the meat on the toast rounds, garnish with a radish rose, and serve. Chopped mushrooms may be sauted with the meat. A good gravy is made by adding half a cup of canned tomatoes to the fat after the meat has been removed, seasoning with curry or Worcestershire sauce.

Oatmeal Bread.—Two cups rolled oats, one cup crumbled bran, one quart boiling water, one-quarter cup molasses, one-quarter teaspoon baking soda, one tablespoon of shortening, one yeast cake, four tablespoons salt, two quarts white flour. At night mix together the bran and oats and stir into the boiling water. Remove from flame and let stand until lukewarm. Stir in the shortening, molasses, yeast cake dissolved in a little warm water, and the flour sifted with the salt and soda. The mixture has to be kneaded to work in all the flour. Cover with clean cloth and set in a warm place over night to rise. In the morning work down, divide in two portions and put in well oiled pans. Let rise again for one and a half hours and then bake for forty-five minutes in a moderate oven—350 degrees.

Strawberry Caprice.—The novelty consists in arranging alternate layers of crushed strawberries and a cream mixture in a tall, thin glass, so that the two colors show plainly by the depth of the glass. Top with a whirl of whipped cream and a single berry. Vanilla ice cream, Bavarian cream or blanc mange shows to good advantage with the pink-tinted crushed fruit. This makes a handsome dessert for a formal dinner and is also popular for serving at parties, wedding receptions, etc.

A very attractive bedroom can be made in the attic with but little cost. Cut the curtains from burlap, hem all around, and make a border with pretty bright-colored carpet warp, using the darned stitch. Make a table runner from the burlap, making the border the same as for the curtains, then with a crochet hook draw the carpet warp through the same place, and tie, forming a fringe. This fringe may be used on the bottom of the curtains if preferred. The cushion covers are made from the burlap, and some flowers cut from cretonne applied on. On others make a design with the warp.

Every article to be dyed should be clean. It should be washed thoroughly with soap and then rinsed. To prevent spotting, the goods should be dipped into warm water just before it is put into the coloring preparation. After the article is dyed it should be aired a while, then well rinsed and hung up to dry. Cotton goods should first be bleached if it is to be dyed a light color. Never wring silk or merino dresses. Use soft water and when the quantity is not mentioned, enough should be used to well cover the goods.

Sponge Cake.—Separate the yolks and whites of four eggs and beat light—first the whites, then the yolks. Add to the yolks a cup of granulated sugar and beat until light and creamy, and add one tablespoon lemon juice, the grated rind of the lemon, and a pinch of salt. Sift one teaspoon baking powder with a cup of flour and add a third of the mixture to the egg and sugar, then a third of the stiffly beaten egg whites, then more flour, alternating until all are used. Fold in gently, using a cutting down movement. Bake in moderate oven.

WHITE SAUCE FLAVOR
 To add a delightful, piquant touch of flavor to white sauce, for creaming potatoes or other "blond" food, put a couple of onion sprouts in the melted butter and let cook until the sauce is done. Then remove them if you wish.

When doing the big washing on Monday, make a bit more starch than you need for that day and bottle it while hot. It comes in especially handy when one has to wash children's clothes several times a week.

Hard-Boiled Eggs.—Put desired number of eggs into boiling water, then set dish off the main fire, allowing to simmer for 20 minutes.

Cream of Tomato Soup.—One pint tomatoes strained, one quart milk, one-eighth teaspoon soda, one slice onion, three tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon sugar, pepper. Soak milk with onion, remove onion and thicken milk with the flour cooked in melted butter. Heat tomatoes with sugar, add soda. Add salt and pepper—combine mixture just before serving.

DOOR MAT PROTECTS RUG
 Now that spring is here with its numerous showers and consequent mud, the door mat is the housekeeper's best friend. Here is a way to make one that costs nothing but a few minutes' time and is as good as an expensive one.

Take a common tow sack, ordinarily called "gunny sack," rip it open and turn wrong side out. The wrong side is preferable because it is cleaner and smoother. Fold twice to make four thicknesses and turn in the rough edges with a darning needle threaded with twine string, overcast the edges loosely. Then take eight or ten stitches through the mat just as one would tack a corner, and the thing is done. When it is soiled wash it with the hose and hang it up to dry. If there is no hose a bucket of water and a broom answers the purpose, and it will drip dry and be ready for use within an hour. Make one for each outer door and one or two extra for the walks that lead up to the porch. These wear like iron.

Baked Eggs.—Boil eggs hard, allowing one to a person. Sprinkle a buttered baking dish with crumbs and put in the eggs. Sprinkle thickly with crumbs, dust with pepper, salt and sugar, then pour in two or three cups of rich thickened tomato sauce. Dust the top with a little grated cheese and bake a delicate brown.

Rhubarb in Gelatin.—Soak one-half envelope granulated gelatin in one-half cup cold water five minutes. Cut one pound rhubarb into inch lengths, add one cup sugar and one-half cup boiling water, bring to boiling point and let boil fifteen minutes. Add soaked gelatin, lemon juice (two tablespoons), and grated rind of one lemon. Turn into mold first dipped in cold water and chill. Serve with whipped cream.

Spiced Veal Loaf.—Grind two pounds of veal with two slices of salt pork through the meat grinder; add eight rolled soda crackers, one and one-half teaspoons of salt, half a teaspoon of paprika, one-quarter of a teaspoon each of curry powder and poultry seasoning, one grated onion, one teaspoon of ground cinnamon, one-half grated nutmeg, and sufficient cold water blended with one beaten egg to form a paste. Pack into an oiled bread pan, unroll on a greased pie plate, and bake for one hour. Have the oven hot at first, then reduce the heat and finish cooking. Baste while baking with three tablespoons of bacon dripping, dissolved in a cup of hot water.

YOUR NEW HOME
 When you are building a new home it is wise to consider a broad covered porch, for it adds roominess to the house. Glass in a certain portion on the sunny side so that it can be used during the winter for a sun parlor, breakfast room, play room, or den. The porch should not be so wide on the sunny side that it will keep the sun from shining into the rooms during the cold season. The house needs the sun and so does the family.

Strawberry Fluff Pie.—Line a pie tin with a rich pastry and fill with the strawberry fluff prepared as follows: Crush two cups of fresh berries, add one cup powdered sugar, one level tablespoon cornstarch, the well beaten whites of two eggs, and one-half teaspoon cream. Bake in a moderate oven and serve cold with or without whipped cream.

Japanese trays may be cleaned by rubbing them with clear olive oil, applied with a flannel cloth.

To remove dust from top of tank and stove pipe you will find a child's toy broom so much handier, especially around the piping, corners and crevices, also the top of stove pipe. It is easier to handle than the regular broom.

Roast Lamb.—Get the crown roast. It is made up of the rib chops, tied in a circle, you know, and the center may be filled with tiny new potatoes. The baby lamb is delicate and the chops are small so you had better get two in a serving. Roast fifteen to twenty minutes to the pound, basting every ten minutes with the pan drippings. For brown gravy drain off all the fat except two tablespoonsful, blend with two tablespoons flour, add gradually one cup hot water, and cook until smooth and thick. Season with salt, pepper and paprika to taste, and a wee bit of onion if liked.

Mint Sauce.—Wash the mint thoroughly, cut it small and put in a small pan, cover with a tablespoon of sugar, half a teaspoon of salt, few grains of cayenne, and a cup of weak vinegar. Let it steep in a warm place for half an hour, and serve hot in a gravy boat or bowl.

Jewel Salad.—Soak one tablespoon of granulated gelatin in one-fourth cup of cold water for ten minutes, then add one-fourth cup of boiling water to dissolve it. Cut a cucumber into dice—one cup—and dice one cup of canned pineapple, mix this and add to the gelatin, then add one-fourth cup of sugar, one-fourth cup of vinegar, two-thirds cup of pineapple syrup, one tablespoon of tarragon vinegar, one tablespoon lemon juice and a few grains of salt. Turn into individual moulds, first dipped in cold water to neat of lettuce leaves. Use with mayonnaise dressing, or half mayonnaise and half whipped cream.

OIL YOUR ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES
 The motors of your electric vacuum cleaner, washing machine, fan, etc., are about as near trouble-proof as pieces of moving machinery can be. With just a slight amount of care they will keep running and give you years of satisfactory service. Provided, of course, they are furnished by a reliable manufacturer of household appliances. Keeping the bearings properly oiled is all that is necessary to insure good service. As to the frequency of the oiling, it depends upon the amount of usage you give them. It is a safe plan to follow the manufacturer's instructions on this point.

Rhubarb Tarts.—Cut the rhubarb into inch pieces without peeling it. The color is much prettier, and if the rhubarb is tender there is no need for taking off the outside skin. Take four cups of rhubarb, one and one-half cups of sugar, one tablespoon of cornstarch, and a very little water. Cook the rhubarb and sugar in a double boiler and when tender add the cornstarch dissolved in the water. Boil five minutes, add a tablespoon of butter and a sprinkle of cinnamon. If the rhubarb is not tart enough add a little lemon juice to bring out the flavor. Make a pie crust by cutting half a cup of shortening into a cup of flour and a pinch of salt. Moisten with a quarter cup of ice water and roll out without much handling. Cover a pie tin with the crust, put in the cold rhubarb mixture, cover the top with strips of the crust in a lattice design, and bake until well done and brown. Serve with a piece of good cheese.

To make a bathtub that has been neglected look like new, soak a flannel in kerosene and rub well over the entire surface. In a few minutes the crust that has been left on from time to time will disappear. This method is especially good where the water is hard. If this is done each time after the tub has been used it will always have a bright, new appearance, and the enamel or paint will not suffer.

When ink is spilled on a carpet or rug lay on pieces of blotting paper, changing them as often as filled with ink. Now wash the spot with a piece of sponge dipped into milk, squeezing it dry between each application and soaking it full of more milk. When the ink has all been taken out, wash the place in weak suds and then rinse with a spongel of clear water. Let it dry without exposure to dust, and it will be difficult to tell where the accident happened.

For an attractive, easily prepared dessert, arrange alternate layers of stale cake and slices of bananas in a glass dish and pour a boiled custard over them.

To keep cereals in good condition, always put them in glass jars.

Rappaports Leave On Extended Trip To Eastern Cities
 Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rappaport left today for a trip of several weeks in the east. They will go to New Orleans on the Southern Pacific, taking a steamship from the Louisiana city to New York. Their itinerary includes Washington, Knoxville, Tenn., Niagara Falls, and Chicago. They will return to California by way of Seattle. In New York Mr. Rappaport contemplates buying Fall merchandise.
